

Team Performance Intensives

Start Thinking

Better Results Through Better Thinking

COURSE SUMMARY

Every organisation runs on thinking so those that can optimise thinking will have a distinct competitive advantage. This workshop will introduce your team to the Whole Brain® Thinking framework, a methodology for increasing thinking agility.

The key to applying the framework is to first understand your thinking preferences. This is achieved by completing a scientifically validated psychometric assessment, the HBDI®. During the workshop, your own unique thinking preferences will be explained to you and you will learn how to apply this understanding to various business contexts.

KEY BENEFITS

- Enhanced self-awareness
- Improved communication and problem solving
- Elevated performance and engagement

SKILLS DEVELOPMENT

You will learn:

- A framework for understanding your own unique thinking preferences
- How to increase your thinking agility
- How you react to stress
- How to apply this newfound understanding to an existing business context

DURATION

Half day option for 8 - 20 participants
